Llangynidr Garden Society

Welcome to our 69th show.

We have altered a few classes and brought in some new ones so read, hopefully with enthusiasm!

We have new classes for: an article machine sewn, an item of pottery, a cake decorating class and a photographic class in the youngsters section.

I hope you have been vigilant during the Jubilee and Olympics for our photographic class of 'A celebration in red, white and blue'.

I hope to see lots of entries here.

Our floral art section has 2 new classes for absolute beginners, who can also enter the open classes. Please have ago!!

Our section for under 16 has a new photographic class—'A sporting moment', I hope we can attract new exhibitors. In the cooking classes we are hoping for inventive cup cake designs or spooky ones for the 7—9 age group.

Pressed flowers and or foliage will be needed for some of the classes so start early!!

Although we are showing in August, we are still remembering it is the Queen's Diamond Jubilee year and hope the 7year olds and below can produce some wonderful tiaras and crowns.

On a horticultural note, those who will be growing cress in an unusual container, it takes about a week to grow so practice now and eat the results!

To finish we have our usual limerick, now class 124 on page 18 with a current theme.

Our advertisers this year, who support this publication, are smaller retailers who need your support. Please try and visit them if you can.

For further copies of this schedule, we will put it on the website:

www.llangynidrshow.org

We organise, but you make the show. I look forward to your entries.

Val Coupland
Show Secretary

86 Garden News Top Tray Rules 2012

A collection of three types of vegetables taken from the following list of eight:

Carrots (3) Cauliflowers (2) Onions (3) Parsnips (3)
Peas (6 pods) Potatoes (3) Runner beans (6 pods) Tomatoes (6)

Each type of vegetable will be judged out of a total of 20 points.

7 points for size, shape and colour,

7 points for condition;

6 points for uniformity.

Total marks out of 60.

All vegetables are to be displayed for effect, within an area 45cm by 60cm (18x24ins.) without bending any part of them.

No part of any exhibit may exceed the size of the tray, or the area marked out on the staging. Where a tray has a lip or edge it is the internal measurements that must not exceed 45cm x 60cm.

A black cloth is permitted, or the tray may be painted. Parsley is allowed for garnishing, but no other foliage or accessories, such as plates, sand, rings etc. will be allowed.

Onion tops may be tied or whipped using raffia or string.

Carrots and parsnips must have foliage trimmed back to 3".

Peas and beans must be displayed with some stalk attached.

Tomatoes must be displayed with calyces.

The winner will receive a Garden News certificate plus a £10 D.T. Brown seed voucher.

Second place will receive a £5 D.T. Brown seed voucher.

Third place will receive a £3 D.T. Brown seed voucher

87 Garden News Top Vase Rules 2012

A vase of mixed flowering stems containing a total of between five and ten, taken from a minimum of two different kinds of plants (not 2 varieties of the same plant i.e. Pinks, carnations and Sweet William - which are all dianthus - would not be classed as different kinds.)

Only fresh, home grown flowers can be used in the vase. (no dried or silk flowers are allowed)

The display will be judged out of a total of 35 points. This split into two sections as follows.

25 points for the colour, form, condition, quality and freshness of the flowers

10 points for the overall presentation and effect of the flowers in the vase.

The vase will be viewed from all directions.

Stems used in the display must be showing flowers only; no seed heads or berries will be allowed. The vase can be any shape and size and made from any material, but must be in proportion to the display. No marks are allowed for the vase itself.

No accessories such as bows and additional foliage will be allowed. Foliage which is growing naturally from the flower stem, and still attached to that stem, is allowed.

Packing material - including Oasis - to keep the stems in place is allowed.

The winner will receive a Garden News certificate plus a £10 Mr. Fothergill's seed voucher.

Second place will receive a £5 Mr. Fothergill's seed voucher.

Third place will receive a £3 Mr. Fothergill's seed voucher.

(The same vase can be entered twice with Class 72 with an additional entry fee.)

CAR BREAKERS

There's a graveyard in our street,
But it's not for putting people in;
The bodies that they bury here
Are made of steel and paint and tin.

The people come and leave their wrecks
For crunching in the giant jaws
Of a great hungry car-machine,
That lives on bonnets, wheels and doors.

When I pass by the yard at night,
I sometimes think I hear a sound
Of ghostly horns that moan and whine,
Upon that metal-graveyard mound.

MISS ANTROBUS

Why do you love your octopus,
Miss Antrobus, Miss Antrobus?
Why do you love your octopus,
Miss Antobus, my dear?

I love my octopus because
It hugs me and it wriggles,
I love my octopus because
Its wriggles give me giggles,
I love my octopus because
It juggles jars of pickles,
I love my octopus because
It tickles, oh, it tickles!

IMPORTANT—on the back of the handwriting sheet PUT YOUR NAME, YEAR GROUP AND SHOW CLASS NUMBER 163 or 164. (Copy this poem in your best handwriting)

SLUGS

Slugs, slugs
Crawl through the grass
Watching all the beetles
As they scurry past

Slugs, slugs
Crawl so slow,
Leaving tracks of silver
Wherever they go.

Slugs, slugs
Crawl all along the wall,
Popping little horns out,
Make no sound at all.
