Garden News

71 Garden News Top Vase Rules 2011

A vase of mixed flowering stems containing a total of between five and ten, taken from a minimum of two different kinds of plants (not 2 varieties of the same plant i.e. Pinks, carnations and Sweet William - which are all dianthus - would not be classed as different kinds.)

Only fresh, home grown flowers can be used in the vase. (no dried or silk flowers are allowed)

The display will be judged out of a total of 35 points. This split into two sections as follows.

25 points for the colour, form, condition, quality and freshness of the flowers

10 points for the overall presentation and effect of the flowers in the vase.

The vase will be viewed from all directions.

Stems used in the display must be showing flowers only; no seed heads or berries will be allowed. The vase can be any shape and size and made from any material, but must be in proportion to the display. No marks are allowed for the vase itself.

No accessories such as bows and additional foliage will be allowed. Foliage which is growing naturally from the flower stem, and still attached to that stem, is allowed.

Packing material - including Oasis - to keep the stems in place is allowed.

The winner will receive a Garden News certificate plus a £10 Mr. Fothergill's seed voucher.

Second place will receive a £5 Mr. Fothergill's seed voucher.

Third place will receive a £3 Mr. Fothergill's seed voucher.

The same vase can be entered twice with Class 55 with an additional entry fee.

Ernie—the Great Collector

“Exotic Ernie” keeps the oddest creatures,
Anything that’s wriggly, scaly, slick.
The neighbours think he’s dangerous and dotty
But collecting reptiles gives him a real kick.

There’s a salamander snoozing in the cellar
A python in the pantry he calls Pru
Tadpoles in the teapot
Two toads in the bread tin
And a lizard licking
Limescale from the loo.

There’s a slow worm sucking “Mintoes” on the sofa
And eight iguanas on the garage wall
A tortoise on the telly
And a dead frog in the fridge
Who’s waiting till
The undertaker calls.

Now Mrs Ernie says she's going to leave him,
 She says she needs more space in which to spread.
 " You always were a fusspot." Ernie mutters.
 "I like an alligator in the bed."

7 to 9 years

Dream Pet

I dreamed I owned a dinosaur,
 I kept it as a pet,
 He really caused a panic
 When I took him to the vet.

 I shoved him in the waiting room,
 A woman gave a shout,
 The dogs all started barking
 So I had to take him out.

 The dinosaur was so afraid
 He hid behind a car.
 The vet said, "You're too big to hide,
 I know just where you are!"

 Before the vet could calm him down
 He'd galloped to the park,
 His big teeth made a racket
 As they chattered in the dark!

 (copy this poem in your best handwriting)

In our attic

I went up in our attic,
 Climbing every creaking stair,
 And looked for hidden treasure
 That I knew was waiting there.

 But then I started screaming.
 It echoed through the house.
 Instead of finding golden coins
